

Hotel Solicitations

Unfortunately, there are many travel companies that try to present themselves as being an official part of the IBS. They are NOT. They frequently offer attractive prices for familiar hotels but be aware that these offers are usually untrue. NAHB and our official vendor Experient are the only official providers of housing for the IBS. Be aware and avoid dealing with these deceptive companies. For questions about housing, please contact Sean Lenahan at slenahan@nahb.org.

A partial list of these companies is below. If you are contacted by someone else other than NAHB or Experient regarding hotel rooms for IBS, please forward a copy to slenahan@nahb.org or exposales@nahb.org so that we can update the list.
